Annual Report for Year 2009

PRESENTING YOUR ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT CREDENTIALS

THE ROAD TO EXCELLENCE

Intel Corporation

(Name of Member Organization)

Directions:

The following pages list some of the leadership characteristics practiced by leading environmentally conscious organizations across the country. Progressive organizations and regulatory agencies identified these characteristics and expectations when the Alliance was formed.

For Member Organizations with >100 Employees:

Please select at least two leadership characteristics for each of the first three categories and respond to the elements of category number four. Provide examples explaining how your organization excels in that area.

For Member Organizations with < 100 Employees:

Please select at least one leadership characteristic for each of the first three categories and respond to the elements of category number four. Provide examples explaining how your organization excels in that area.

PLEASE NOTE:

- The fewer the examples reported, the more compelling they should be.
- Information provided needs to be applicable to reporting year labeled above.
- Make all attempts to quantify and qualify your information so that it can be fully appreciated by the reader.
- Define and describe any references to additional or attached information.
- Members may include information or documents prepared for other purposes as a means to accomplish the Alliance report. However, if this approach is used, please provide clear cross-references between the specific leadership characteristic reported on and the page or section of the document relied on.
- Provide examples of reported improvements or new initiatives.

OPTIONAL REPORT FORMATS

Member Organizations may submit an alternative environmental annual report if (1) the report addresses the four categories of "Leadership Characteristics" (pg. 3) and (2) if the member submits an "Alternative Annual Report Cover Letter" (pg. 2) certifying adherence to Alliance Principles (pg. 4), and (3) presents a brief report to the Annual Report Review Committee. The Review Committee reserves the right to ask for additional information if the alternative report does not sufficiently address Leadership Characteristics.
